

FIRST TIME
IN SINGAPORE!

Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, Singapore
presents

ASCD IP Sharing Seminar

Sharing of Teaching-Learning Innovations in IP Schools

Keynote Address

*“Rethinking Curriculum, Progress, and Learning for a *V.U.C.A. Future”*

(*Volatile, Uncertain, Complex and Ambiguous)

By A Prof Kelvin Tan

Head, Curriculum, Teaching & Learning
National Institute of Education, NTU

Followed by

Two Breakout Sessions by IP Teachers

Participants can attend two breakout sessions which revolve around the themes of

-  Holistic Development of the IP Students
-  IP Curriculum Design and Development
-  Teaching and Learning in a specific academic domain

Friday, 20th April 2018

2.30pm to 5.30pm

Cedar Girls' Secondary School
1 Cedar Avenue, Singapore 349692

Fees:      ASCD (Singapore) Members:                      S$50.00 per participant
                 Non-Members    S$80.00 per participant

Afternoon Tea Refreshments will be served.

About the First IP Sharing Seminar in Singapore

This is the first IP Sharing seminar organised for schools, and the intent is to

- Encourage the sharing of curricular and instructional innovations by IP schools
- Provide a platform for participants to initiate and continue with innovation practices within their learning institutions and areas of teaching-learning
- Provide a networking opportunity among educators from Singapore schools and international schools in Singapore